

Kennedy's Overseas Trip Set

Colombia And Venezuela On Goodwill Agenda

WASHINGTON (AP)—President and Mrs. Kennedy will visit Venezuela and Colombia Dec. 16 and 17 to dramatize the Alliance for Progress program for social and economic development of the Western Hemisphere.

The White House announced the trip — long expected — and said Kennedy "hopes to visit other parts of Latin America in the future."

There was no elaboration as to how soon in the future such a visit might occur or what countries might be visited.

On the flying expedition to Caracas and Bogota, Kennedy will take part in the dedication of low-cost housing, primary education and rural community improvement projects begun under the Alliance for Progress which he outlined as a major 10-year goal for the United States during his presidential campaign.

"The purpose of the visit," the White House said, "is to dramatize and spotlight the cooperative effort being made by the United States and the republics of South America to accelerate the economic and social development of the Western Hemisphere."

The trip will cover four days. Kennedy will fly from Washington to San Juan, Puerto Rico, on Friday, Dec. 15.

He will spend the night as a guest of Gov. Luis Munoz Marin.

Kennedy will leave San Juan Saturday, Dec. 16 for Caracas and spend Saturday night in the Venezuelan capital then take off Sunday morning for Bogota.

Kennedy, Macmillan Meet Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan will meet in Bermuda Dec. 21 and 22 to outline final strategy for possible Berlin negotiations with the Soviet Union.

The White House announced plans for the conference late Monday.

In addition to their policy talks on Berlin, Kennedy and Macmillan are expected to discuss disarmament negotiations and a course for an agreement to end nuclear weapons testing under an international inspection system. They may issue some new call for cooperation by the Soviet Union to bring the nuclear race under control.

Diplomatic informants in London said Kennedy and Macmillan were expected to discuss the negotiations now in progress to bring Britain into the European Common Market, ways of tightening Western defenses and the probable meaning of the recent Communist party congress in Moscow and the new de-Stalinization wave it launched.

Administration hopes for steady progress toward East-West negotiations on Berlin received a setback over the weekend with blunt Communist rejection of Kennedy's suggestion last week for international control of the access routes to West Berlin across East Germany.

Districts Map Was In Error On 5th District

The Associated Press newsmap appearing in the Sunday Sedalia Democrat-Capital, showing the entire area of Jackson County in the Fifth Congressional District of Missouri was in error.

Actually, according to a supplement to the revised Statutes of Missouri, 1961, most of Jackson County outside the city limits of Kansas City, and parts of Kansas City, are in the Fourth Congressional District, which includes Pettis County.

The new law states that the Fourth Congressional District is made up of Wards 15, 17, 23 and that part of Ward 24, east of Highway 71 in Kansas City, and all of Jackson County outside the city limits of Kansas City except the area between the south line of Jackson County and the south city limits of Kansas City west of Highway 71, and the following counties: Cass, Bates, Vernon, Lafayette, Johnson and Pettis.

No Ordinances Introduced

City Business Is Handled Quickly

By D. KELLY SCRUTON

The Sedalia City Council held one of its shortest meetings for this year, Monday night, when they met and handled city business before them just short of 30 minutes. No new ordinance was brought before the Council, nor any type resolution.

Council members heard from William Ward of the Husmann and Roper-Schien Truck Lines, regarding an ordinance governing parking of vehicles in alleys for unloading or loading of freight, merchandise or other articles. Ward told the Council he personally felt it was a misunderstanding in the interpretation of its meaning.

New State Department Shake-up

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—You can expect a second diplomatic shake-up in the State Department soon. This one will not penetrate so deeply as the benching of Under Secretary of State Chester Bowles, but it will be important and will affect our relations with the Soviet bloc countries.

Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson, for four years stationed in Moscow, has asked to be transferred and will go to West Germany. Thompson has the confidence of Premier Khrushchev, and while his departure from Moscow may handicap relations with Khrushchev, it may also help to dispel Moscow's worries about the emergence of West Germany as a military threat.

Thompson will be replaced by Jacob Beam, now ambassador to Poland. Beam has an intimate knowledge of the Communist world, having served not only in a Communist bloc country, but having conducted relations with Red China regarding various Sino-American problems.

Another major shake-up will affect the American embassy in Paris. Gen. James Gavin was a great commander in the war, but has been a flop as ambassador to France. In the first place, he doesn't speak French. In the second place, he doesn't understand diplomacy. In the third place, he is not well informed. He let the Bizerte crisis take place in Tunisia without any advance warning to Washington. It could have been prevented had we known in advance that the French were going to dig in for a longer stay in their Tunisian naval base.

As a result of all these factors, Ambassador Gavin will be transferred to some kind of face-saving post in Washington, probably in the Pentagon.

City Counsellor John C. McCloskey said the ordinance did not prohibit trucks from parking to unload or load.

Chief of Police Ralph Hamlin told the group it was his interpretation that trucks could not block another property owner's driveway, and pointed out an example of a truck parking to unload and down the alley a ways a complaint was received from a property owner who could not get to his entranceway.

Mayor Abe Silverman, after hearing several speak regarding the ordinance, suggested a meeting of the traffic committee, along with the Street and Alley Committee, those persons representing delivery services and business men. After the council had adjourned, those present did meet and discussed the problem after which it was indicated a solution would be reached to accommodate everyone concerned. No announcement was made as to what the solution would be, other than several thought a time limit on parking would be in order.

During the regular meeting, Councilman E. Glenn Lewis, under Street and Alley reports, announced his department was making good progress in building the new Industrial Drive in the Industrial Park in west Sedalia. He reported it should be ready by the time the Boeing Company was ready to begin using the area.

Glenn also reported three major sewer jobs were underway and that an additional inspector was needed. He said he was making the report and asked Councilman Raymond Roberts, chairman of the Sewer and Sanitation Department, to make his recommendation. Councilman Roberts moved that an additional employee be hired temporarily, to assist in the work.

US Presses Toward Goal

Astronaut Glenn Begins Training

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The United States pressed ahead today toward its goal of orbiting a man around the world this year. Scientists, engineers and technicians worked round the clock and astronaut John H. Glenn Jr., the chosen pilot, began extensive preparation in a "ready room" not far from the launching pad.

If all goes right, the attempt could be made as early as Dec. 20. Technical problems could delay the launching, and major trouble could push it into 1962.

Glenn moved Monday into special quarters on the Cape so he could be near all key centers of Project Mercury operations.

Not far away are the launching pad where the huge Atlas booster rocket was erected Saturday; the hangar where Glenn's spacecraft is undergoing thorough checkout, the Mercury control center, nerve center of the operation, and a ground-based capsule where he can run through simulated flights of his projected three times around the world mission.

The "ready room" is the same lodging occupied by astronauts Alan B. Shepard Jr. and Virgil I. Grissom for a few days before their 15-minute suborbital flights earlier this year.

With a more demanding assignment before him, Glenn, 40, a Marine lieutenant colonel, entered the quarters early to prepare for the flight. He will undergo periodic physical and psychological examinations, bone up on space roadmaps so stars and ground features will be readily recognized when he looks out of his spaceship as it zips around the world at 17,500 miles an hour, and he will hold numerous consultations on progress of the missile and capsule.

Glenn will live in the quarters most of the time until launching. But he will be able to leave the Cape when his training does not restrict him. His wife, Anna, their two children will remain at their home in Arlington, Va.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has not announced that manned orbit will be tried this year. But it is known officials want to achieve it in 1961, the same year as the Soviet Union.

Tax Collections In State Show $10 Million Gain

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—State tax collections are holding up well, Comptroller Charles D. Trigg reported today.

Receipts for the first five months of the fiscal year that started July 1 amounted to $89,805,000, or more than $10 million better than the comparable five months a year ago.

Total receipts for 1961-62 are estimated at $247,400,000, against 1960-61 receipts of $213,123,000.

They climbed from $11,382,000 was off for a time but has bounced back to $60,138,000 for the five months against $57,994,000 a year ago.

But the big gain was in state income tax receipts under the new payroll withholding system. They climbed from $11,382,000 last year to $17,669,000 this year.

Trigg said it would be impossible to tell what the income tax yield will be until the state has a full year of experience with the new system.

As of Nov. 30 the state's cash balance was $24,505,000, not including about $1.5 million in process of collection at the time.

Executives' Fancy Cars On Way Out

Dalton Orders Nine State Chiefs To Smaller Cars

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Big, fancy automobiles for state employees are on the way out under a new policy announced today by Gov. John M. Dalton.

Heads of the nine major state departments will be limited to middle range cars like Buick, Oldsmobile and Chrysler.

All other state employees will drive cars from the middle price class in the Ford, Chevrolet and Plymouth lines. Employees who drive state cars less than 15,000 miles a year on official business won't have cars assigned to them.

Purchasing Agent Royal O. Cooper, who sat in on the governor's news conference, estimated the state could save $60,000 to $100,000 a year by buying cars in group lots twice a year and selling the old cars at public auction.

For the current two year period, automobile purchases will cost the state more than half a million dollars. The legislature appropriated $220,100 to replace 117 state owned cars and $299,150 to buy 149 additional cars.

Under the new policy, department directors will be allowed to have cars equipped with air conditioners, radios, heaters, seat belts and one outside rear view mirror. Cars of other state employees will not have air conditioners.

Only the available appropriation will control the size or plushness of cars bought for the governor or other elective state officials.

The governor described the new policy as part of a general plan to tighten up the state's business operations.

"Our income is becoming more limited all the time," he said.

The new policy does not cover vehicles of the highway patrol, highway department or the University of Missouri. Their purchases are not handled by the state purchasing agent.

At the same time Dalton announced plans are being worked out to pool the use of five of the six state owned planes based in Jefferson City. The highway patrol has two, the Conservation Commission two, the Highway Department one and the Division of Commerce and Industrial Development one.

One of these, a single engine Cessna of the patrol, would be kept available at all times for law enforcement work. The others would be made available to other state agencies as needed, with operating costs to be paid by the agency using the plane.

For example, one state department recently sent four men to a national meeting at Atlanta. The tourist rate for the round trip was $327.60. A state plane could have taken them for an estimated $140 for gas and oil.

Dalton said he was working on several other plans to tighten up state government costs and might have some announcements on them next week.

16 SHOPPING DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS

Residents Flee Elizabethville

ELIZABETHVILLE, Katanga, the Congo (AP)—Wide-spread fighting broke out between U.N. forces and President Moise Tshombe's Katanga troops in Elizabethville today. Many people fled the city in panic.

Foreign Minister Evariste Kimba, ranking Katanga official in the absence of Tshombe, charged the United Nations started the shooting and declared, "Katanga will fight and defend itself."

He listed nine wounded so far on Katanga's side but said he did not know the extent of U.N. casualties.

The sound of mortar and other firing from several directions started a panic exodus from this capital of secessionist Katanga Province.

Contrary to U.N. reports that all Katanga ministers also had fled, Kimba held a news conference with all ministers present. Just before shooting started,

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Acting Secretary General U Thant today ordered jet planes flown into Elizabethville for use in support of U. N. forces in the strife-torn Katanga capital.

A U. N. spokesman said the jets would be used to "support ground action by the U. N. troops, and to destroy any aircraft that takes hostile action against U. N. positions."

Brian Urquhart, special U.N. adviser, charged a Katanga battle plan for a sneak attack had been uncovered and that fighting was inevitable.

Resenting a new U.N. resolution calling illegal Katanga's secession from the Congo's central government, the Katangans Monday threw up roadblocks to the airport, vital for supplying U.N. forces.

Contrary to the spirit of an agreement that appeared to have eased tension over the barricades, Urquhart said Katanga troops had been discovered advancing through thick brush toward the U.N.-held airport. He charged this was a "final act of bad faith."

Mortar fire and other heavy firing were heard outside the telegraph office, near U.N. head-

U. N. headquarters in Leopoldville said two foreign mercenaries were killed in one action and 38 Katangans were killed in a fight at a roadblock between Elizabethville airport and the town.

Sture Linner, U. N. head in the Congo, said Acting Secretary General U Thant had given unlimited authority to restore order in the secessionist province. U Thant ordered jet fighters flown to Elizabethville.

quarters, in the direction of the airport seven miles outside the city and elsewhere.

The Elizabethville radio antenna was damaged by shelling, halting communications with the outside world for a short time.

The firing later stopped and Elizabethville showed signs of slowly coming back to life again after the first shock of the afternoon fighting.

Shoplifting Prevention Steps Taken

Positive action is being taken by the Sedalia Police Department and local merchants to reduce the annual loss to shoplifters during the Christmas shopping season.

Chief of Police Ralph Hamlin said Tuesday morning he is assigning an officer to the downtown shopping district during the entire peak shopping period, with the duty hours of the officer to coincide as nearly as possible with peak shopping hours.

This officer will be in plain clothes, and will travel from store to store during his tour of duty. He will be known to all merchants Hamlin said.

In addition to the regular police officer, Hamlin said several of the local merchants are hiring floor walkers to be in their stores during the shopping period.

A new state law in effect this year makes it easier for store operator or his employees to detain a person suspected of shoplifting without fear of a lawsuit.

Congo UN Chief Given Full Power

Told to Restore Order With Own Decisions

LEOPOLDVILLE — The Congo (AP)—Acting U.N. Secretary General U Thant today gave "carte blanche" or full discretionary power to U.N. authorities in the Congo to restore order in Katanga.

A U.N. spokesman announced that Swedish troops have been flown into Elisabethville where the U.N. and Katangan troops started fighting today.

Dr. Sture Linner, head of the U.N. in the Congo, was in radioteletype communication with headquarters in New York.

After these consultations, the secretary general authorized Linner to take whatever action he sees fit in Katanga, the official spokesman said.

The Swedish troops were landed at Elisabethville Airport without any trouble, the spokesman said, adding: "We are in full control of the airport."

Originally the Swedes were intended to replace a Swedish contingent now serving in Katanga.

"Now they will reinforce them, not replace them," the spokesman said.

The United Nations announced today that 38 Katanga police and paracommandos were counted dead after the military action at a roadblock on the route to Elisabethville Airport. The U.N. said two European mercenary officers also have been killed in the action.

Many Car Thefts Are Traced Back To Negligence

Pettis County Sheriff Emmett Fairfax today pointed out that many car thefts can be traced to the negligence of the car owner.

Investigation has shown, Fairfax said, that three cars have been stolen in Pettis County in the last two weeks, simply because they were not properly locked.

In the three cases, Fairfax said, the car owner had removed the keys from the ignition switch, but had failed to leave the switch in a locked position.

In the newer model cars the switch can be in an on, off, locked or start position. In the "off" position, the switch is off, but can be activated and the car started without use of the key.

The sheriff noted that many drivers turn the switch to the "off" position, then remove the key for use on the car trunk or door, and then forget to place the key back in the switch and leave the switch in the locked position.

"This is an open invitation to people who make it their business or pleasure to take a car belonging to someone else," Fairfax said. He urged drivers to make sure the switch is locked, then lock the car doors, and save many apprehensive hours searching for a stolen car.

Driver Dies in Wreck

The highway patrol reported the right front tire of the truck blew out as the vehicle was going down M13, two miles south of Richmond.

A-Fishing We May Go

Accomplishing an objective by orderly democratic procedures is advocated by every well-intentioned citizen. Therefore it is hopeful the four year hassle over the issue of opening Spring Fork Lake area for recreational purposes will soon be resolved in that manner.

Spring Fork Lake is the source of Sedalia's water supply. It was privately owned until purchased by the city following approval by the voters of a $2,700,000 bond issue in February 1957. Thereafter the Sedalia Water department came under management of a newly created Board of Public Works.

Before that, under private ownership, limited fishing privileges were extended by the management. This practice was continued under the Board of Public Works. When trespassers were prosecuted, Stanton Hudson, weekly newspaper publisher, began a crusade against special privilege in which he became personally involved as a nominal fisherman with a baitless hook and fence-climbing proclivities. He accepted service on a warrant charging trespass and voluntarily appeared at the county jail for a token incarceration and subsequent release on his own recognizance, or something like that, whatever all those words mean. We offered at the time to go his bond which he didn't need and lucky for us else we'd been put on the spot having no dough in pocket.

We lost track of whatever happened to the Hudson case but he's still alive and cackling over the outcome of his sacrificial crusade which finally affected the status of some councilmen and the subsequent vaporizing of the official positions of a water board manager and water board members by voluntary resignations and term expirations.

Sometimes exciting, sometimes dull, the serial story of the Battle of Spring Fork Lake will probably become part of the historical lore of the community, not as elusive information-wise as the Battle of Big Walnut Creek southeast of town 100 years ago.

Under the aegis of a reorganized board of works, citizens of Sedalia next spring may be the beneficiary of recreational privileges in the lake area which they own. We have it by authority of board members that this is one of their immediate projects and that this will include installation of improved filters to screen extra, if any, pollution that may result. This is in accord with the thinking of many citizens, including myself, that the present filtration processes are not adequate to cope with purification of the water supply from an area like Spring Fork if it is to be made available for public recreation. Even the board at this time proposes to limit the number of persons allowed to fish in the lake at any given time. Such limitation is a cautious but necessary approach to the problem. Some may think it is merely an extension of the permit system used before, but those who may be disgruntled by it for the time being are expected to abide by the rules rather than to revive the discredited trespass method of fishing there. That is, on those occasions they may be turned away when and if the area reaches the limitation mark on any given day.

The ideal plan, of course, which we advocated four years ago, was to abolish the permit system (then basically a special privilege without fee) and close the Spring Fork area for public use until such time as the place is prepared to receive one and all, a couple or ten thousand at a time.

Now the board is intent on doing just that—preparing the place with proper safeguards for public use at an early date. This, however, will be done under limitation rules rather than wait until all improvements and details are worked out to accommodate hundreds or thousands at one time.

This is the cautious approach by the board to whom the Missouri Board of Health has given conditional approval for fishing and use of the Spring Fork area for recreational purposes. Approval is not absolute but granted on fulfillment of certain conditions including those foreseen and perhaps some unforeseen.

The Board of Works is of the opinion these requirements can be met by stages, important ones of which include increasing the height of the spillway, enlarging the lake and additional safeguards in the filtration system.

To accomplish these objectives, a liberal-minded board of works requires public patience, and no trespassing by the eager-beavers. And it is well to remember recreational privileges won't all come at once next spring.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Kennedy Uses the Telephone

By DREW PEARSON
WASHINGTON — President Kennedy is a man who believes in using the telephone. His aides sometimes pick up the phone early in the morning to hear a famous Harvard accent at the other end.

Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall answered the phone the other day after having been razed in the press about wanting to get rid of some of the grotesque statues that litter the scene in the nation's capital.

"Stu," said the voice, "you keep on making the little mistakes. I'll make the big ones." It was the President kidding his Secretary of the Interior.

The other morning before 9, Assistant Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester picked up the telephone. It was the President speaking.

"Have you seen that New York Herald Tribune story on the reserves?" asked the President, who had gone over his newspapers long before the official day started.

He referred to a report that Secretary of Defense McNamara had changed his mind about the length of time to be served by the reserves and might retain them longer than a year.

The story obviously upset the President. First, because it was contrary to his own views; second, because the Defense Department and the White House have received 18,000 protests from reservists wanting release as hardship cases.

Assistant Secretary Sylvester told the President that Secretary McNamara had made absolutely no statements that the reserves would be held longer than a year, nor had he entertained any such idea.

"What basis could the Tribune have had for going out with a story like this?" Kennedy asked. "Was there any paper around that could have given them such an idea?"

Sylvester replied that there was not.

Later in a press conference the President corrected the mistaken report that the reserves might have to serve longer than a year; and at a subsequent press conference, he expressed the belief that they could get off in less than 12 months.

Effect On Allies

Calling the reserves has been one of the most controversial moves President Kennedy has made. However, it has had important impact on our NATO allies. The United States has used it to pressure England, France and West Germany to call up more men.

Prime Minister Macmillan and Chancellor Adenauer both know what it means to pull men out of business when there is no actual shooting. And having seen Kennedy do this, they have agreed to supply more troops to NATO.

Guest Editorial

MILWAUKEE JOURNAL: Reliever Keeps Pool. — Because she accepted the $4,000 swimming pool she had won on a television program last summer, Mrs. Elina Sawicki, a St. Paul mother of 10, has been denied $129 a month under the aid to dependent children program.

A luxury item like a swimming pool ought to be converted into cash and the money used to support the family.

But it was not on such sensible grounds that aid was denied. In best bureaucratic fashion, the county welfare board held that installation of the pool raised the equity of Mrs. Sawicki's property above the $7,500 permitted by state law.

Oh, yes, and Mrs. Sawicki is still eligible for $250 a month in direct relief!

Shadow on Success
It was, of course, inevitable that New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's announcement of separation from his wife should touch off a round of speculation as to its effect on his political future.

Somewhere amid this insensitive clatter, however, there should be room for thought of the human tragedy that it represents.

Here is a man of fabulous wealth who refused to rest on his fortune but set out to conquer a variety of other worlds—including the bruising one of politics—and succeeded.

Yet in gaining these things he finally lost, after 31 years, the bond of marriage that most men need to give their victories meaning.

Castro On Bloody Chaotic Highway

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — Fidel Castro is an emotional Marxist, not an intellectual one. And, because he is, his road to communism in Cuba should continue to be unpredictable, erratic, opportunistic, and probably bloody and chaotic.

The difference between intellect and emotion in Castro was spelled out in his Saturday broadcast in which he explained how long it took him to become a Marxist-Leninist.

But then, admitting he is taking Cuba into communism, he said his program will be "Marxist-Leninist but adapted to conditions existing in our country."

This makes him no less a problem for the United States but in time it should also make him a problem for both Moscow and Peking.

The Russians and Red Chinese are having trouble enough with one another on what road to take without seeing Castro riding off in still another direction like Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito.

It is no wonder Premier Khrushchev, in his Vienna talk with President Kennedy last June, called Castro unstable and said he is not a Communist.

Castro listed three stages in his development which show he became a Marxist as a result of events and not of a cool intellectual determination.

When he was a student in Havana, son of a rich landowner, he was not a Marxist because he was influenced, he said, by capitalist propaganda. This would indicate he was then anti-Communist. He was 23 when he was graduated from Havana University in 1950 with a law degree and a doctorate.

At 26, he said, his thinking was pretty much as it is now. But, if he can be believed, this can hardly have been the case since he then said he didn't become a Marxist-Leninist until he took over Cuba three years ago at 32.

The Cuban Communists had doubts about him. When he was fighting in the hills against the dictatorship of Fulgencio Batista, which he toppled at the beginning of 1959, the Communists refused to take part in a general strike he called for.

At that time, a State Department white paper said earlier this year, "when Castro first went to the hills the Cuban Communist party dismissed him as 'bourgeois' and 'putschist'."

As recently as Nov. 27, 1960, Max Frankel, writing in the New York Times about interviews he had with Communist leaders almost two years after Castro came to power, said: "The party has had its differences with Dr. Castro."

tro but they occurred, in the words of one of its leaders, "before he understood."

One of the leaders told Frankel: "In the early days after Castro seized power here the Communist party had many disagreements with him about tactics and ideology. Gradually, however, it was able to convince him that anti-communism was a threat to his revolution and power."

"Thereafter, the ideological differences withered away until now there are only 'little things between us.' Premier Castro does not like a few of our ideas and we do not like a few of his—nothing important."

In short, Castro was had. He bought Marxism not because he had thought it through but because it gave him some sense of direction, which he didn't seem to have, and, above all, it was expedient.

He may have a social consciousness, but if he has a political philosophy it is expediency. If anyone doubts it, look at the record.

On Jan. 8, 1959, a few days after he took over, he promised to "give the people love." Since then he has executed over 600 people.

The State Department white paper sums it up: "The history of the Castro revolution has been the history of the calculated destruction of the free-spirited rebel army—of the disillusion, persecution, imprisonment, exile, and execution of men and women who supported Dr. Castro."

He promised, before he took over, to adhere to the Cuban constitution and he guaranteed freedom of speech and all rights. He went back on them all later.

Castro, judged by his own words and actions, is a man stumbling from one year into the next.

Reuther, Building Trades Stir Jurisdictional Brew

BY PETER EDSON
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — There's another side of the story to the latest ruckus stirred up by United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther.

At the Industrial Unions Department conference here, Reuther charged that if the building trades craft unions didn't stop their internal warfare against the IUD (of which he is also president), the AFL-CIO — of which he is vice president-aspiring-to-be-president — would bust up.

The full answer to Reuther will be made during the Building and Construction Trades Department convention in Miami. Its principal officers are President C. J. Haggerty and Secretary-Treasurer Frank Bonadio.

There are 18 unions with about four million members in the building trades, and 59 unions with about six million members in the industrial unions. They have long been at war, mostly over jurisdictional disputes.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE BUILDING TRADES STORY:

In the 1955 Miami agreement for merger of AFL with CIO, it was specified that new construction and major alterations should be the work of the building trades. Production work and running maintenance were to go to the industrial unions.

In gray areas, past practice would determine jurisdiction.

The next March there was a building trades strike on a construction job at Ford Motor Co. The auto workers claimed they had a restrictive clause in their contract with Ford. Under this the company had to offer work to unions of its own employees before it could let contracts giving work to others.

The building trades 'contend that Reuther at that time said he considered restrictive clauses wrong and that they had been eliminated from all U.A.W. contracts except at Ford.

It is claimed that Reuther offered to cancel this clause in the Ford contract if the strike was settled. The strike was settled and the clause went out. But in the new 1961 contracts with Ford and General Motors, it is back in.

In 1958 a special committee of the AFL-CIO executive council under Machinists' Union President Al Hayes drafted a new agreement which both the building trades and industrial unions signed. The first provision called for new construction, major alterations and repairs to be work of building trades.

Within 30 days, it is charged, the Steelworkers and two other unions washed their hands of the agreement because their members wanted to do construction work. And in July, at a meeting of the Hayes committee, Reuther served notice that the industrial unions were unilaterally abrogating the agreement.

In its place, he proposed that different standards be introduced, based entirely on past practices.

At the AFL-CIO convention of 1959 in San Francisco it was decided that a new attempt should be made to devise a plan to settle all jurisdictional disputes with arbitration as a terminal point. There were two other main provisions. Each case should be decided on its own merits without prejudice to the future. Existing jurisdiction of each affiliated union should be safeguarded.

But ever since then there have been charges and counter charges in a number of cases. One of them, brought before the AFL-CIO executive council at Unity House, Pa., was unanimously decided in favor of the building trades last June. Then came Reuther's recent blastoff in Washington.

It is expected, however, that the Hayes Committee will make another attempt to reach a formula for settling jurisdictional disputes after the building trades convention but before AFL-CIO convenes Dec. 7 at Miami.

This is the forum where Reuther has threatened to reopen the issue, keeping the convention in session until it is settled to his satisfaction, with compulsory arbitration.

One thing seems certain. There can be no peace in the temples of labor as long as this monkey business goes on.

What They Say

STANTON HUDSON (Publisher Sedalia Times, in letters to President Kennedy, Senator Symington and Congressman Randall) — Let me add my voice to the many protests you have doubtlessly received against the closing of the local Veterans Administration office. The VA plea of economy lacks depth. Putting two VA employees out by closing our office would result only in hiring more at Kansas City or somewhere. If any economy to the government would be effected, it would only be from veterans being allowed to be unaware of benefits due them because of a lack of direct and friendly contact with the VA. You realize, of course, that many veterans don't know how to carry on a correspondence concerning their rights with a huge, impersonal office bureau. I know how to write the letters and fill out the myriad forms, but many do not. Our local office has performed a service for veterans that a distant office, by the very nature of things, could not. I sincerely urge you to use your great influence to retain these local offices which I feel sure are of great value to veterans.

OLEANDER'S CHRISTMAS EVE

The stockings were hung by the chimney with care—

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I did a terrible thing. I accepted a date with a square for the big dance. He asked me early and I said yes because I thought it might be my only chance to go.

Well, a senior dreamboat called me two days before the dance and asked me to go with him. I'd had my eye on this guy ever since I was a sophomore, so I said OK. Then I phoned the square and told him I got my dates mixed up and he'd have to forgive me. Ten minutes later the square called back and said the least I could do was send him the $2 he had lost on the bet. Get this, Ann, the dreamboat bet the square I'd break my date and go with him. I was so humiliated, I broke the date with the dreamboat. What more can I do to set things right? — FLEABRAIN

Dear Fleabrain: Send the square $2. And get on your knees, kiddo. What you did was as low a stunt as a girl can pull. You deserve to stay at home dateless for a long time.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a woman 30 years old. My boy friend is 35. I met this man through a friend when he was visiting in my hometown. He fell for me on the first date. He said I was wasting my time in a small town and begged me to move to the city where he lived (500 miles away). He guaranteed me a fine job.

After dating me for two weeks he gave me an engagement ring. I was thrilled. (A woman 30 doesn't get too many offers of marriage). I left family, friends and job and told everyone I was moving away to be married. Housing was tight so I moved into his apartment. Well we've been living like this for six months and we still aren't married. He always has some excuse.

I can't go home because everyone thinks we are married. I have no friends here and have spent all my money fixing up his apartment. If I left him I'd be lonely, Ann. What should I do? — U. D. O.

Dear U. D. O.: You're better off lonely than pregnant. Move out immediately — into a rented room if necessary — and save your money to go home. Tell people things didn't work out and that you did not marry. Skip the details. For a woman of 30, you have a few things to learn about rings, Toots. The engagement ring is pretty — but it's that plain gold band that says it's all right to move in with a man.

Dear Ann Landers: I've seen signs saying "We love our children — please drive carefully"; "Keep Alert Small Fry Ahead"; etc. and believe me I respect these signs. But what about a campaign to teach children a little alertness for their own safety?

Last week while driving down a busy street I came upon three little boys about eight years old. They were lying on their backs in the middle of the street. I swerved and almost struck a light-post to avoid hitting them. One of the boys shouted, "We sure forced that car off the road."

Of course, it's important to watch out for kids, but what about teaching them to obey the law and to watch out for themselves? — C. M.

Dear Parents, U. S. A.: The day this column appears in print somebody's child will die under the wheels of a car — as a result of his own negligence or lack of training. Will it be yours?

Confidential to DISGUSTED: You don't mean "consult" her husband. You mean "tell" her husband. The answer is no. Tell YOURS.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

In Four Wild Rounds

Patterson Wins By KO;
Liston Seen As Opponent

TORONTO (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson's fourth round knockout of a wild, eight-knockdown brawl and Sonny Liston's dynamic one-punch blitz of Albert Westphal stirred up the possibility today of a $10-million showdown between the two victors.

The battle of the Sixties may not come off soon. Although Patterson, according to those very close to him, wants it badly, Liston hungers for it, and promoters Al and Tom Bolan, among others, desire it, cautious Gus D'Amato, the champ's manager, is in no hurry.

More to Cus' liking for the next fight is Henry Cooper, the British heavyweight champion, who meets contender Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., in London tonight. That's what D'Amato told the Associated Press.

Patterson, unmarked and very fresh after his victory Monday night, declined to answer when asked if he would give Liston a crack at the title. He merely pointed to his manager.

"Liston can have a fight next week if he wants it," said D'Amato. "He knows what he must do to get it. It is up to him. That is all I can say."

He declined to elaborate.

Patterson said he would like to fight again early next year.

Liston, after flattening Westphal with one right hand to the jaw in 1:5 of the first round at Philadelphia's Convention Hall, said "I'm ready for him right now."

"He's been scared for me for more than a year and a half," said Liston, the reinstated No. 1 contender from Philadelphia who has had several scrapes with the law.

The Patterson-McNeeley wounding in which Patterson went down on a so-called slip, at Maple Leaf Gardens, and the Liston-Westphal quickie formed a closed-circuit television double-header that was shown in about 150 theatres and arenas in the United States and Canada. It was also beamed to homes in 31 community antenna community systems.

Irving B. Kahn, president of TelePrompTer, which handles the ancillary rights (TV, radio, movies), estimated that he could line up 1,500,000 seats at an average $5 a head for a Patterson-Liston fight. The gate at a place like New York's Yankee Stadium could produce a $2.5-million gross at a $100 top, experts figured.

The Patterson-McNeeley scrap was a thriller from the very start. There were so many knockdowns and slips that arguments raged as to whether the former Michigan State football tackle was down eight, nine or ten times, and whether Patterson actually was dropped or slipped in the fourth round.

The Associated Press count had McNeeley down eight times where he was given the mandatory eight-counts, and twice on slips which might have been knockdowns.

Referee Jersey Joe Walcott, the former heavyweight champion, ruled there were two slips by McNeeley and that Patterson went down on a slip in the fourth round.

McNeeley, a strong, 6-2, 197-pounder, was knocked down once in the first round, four times in the third, and three times in the 2:51 fourth round. Walcott ruled he also slipped once in the first round and once in the third.

Patterson admitted he was hurt a couple of times in the third and fourth rounds.

Against Austin Tonight

LaRose Sets Out to Prove
His 'Death Match' Victory

Guy LaRose sets out tonight to prove his "death match" victory over king-sized Buddy Austin was no fluke last week.

The hustling Canadian got the nod after some vicious punishment dished out by both men. To make sure that he is rewarded properly for his hardy efforts against Austin, LaRose wants the Central States title belt on the line.

That'll be the situation tonight at Convention Hall as Austin has learned that anything goes when the title is at stake and he's prepared to go all out to make a solid defense of it. He has even agreed to a stipulation that there will be no time limit, a move that could cost him heavily if he fails to get by the Canadian.

Tonight also marks the return of Bulldog Lee Henning, the boisterous, wild-swinging veteran from Buffalo, N.Y., who has been laboring in the East the last few months. Henning was the No. 1 man among the roughers when he was here last winter and he hopes to regain that distinction within a short time. Besides going in team action, he'll also take a turn at an individual pairing.

Hennings joins towering Stan Stasiak to oppose Corsica Joe and Karl Von Schoberg in tag team action. In his single match, the tough New Yorker will draw Duke Hoffman.

Hoffman also will be taking a

"I knew when I was hit in the fourth round," said the champion, trim at 188½ pounds, "but I was never seriously in trouble."

Although he had the brawny but inexperienced McNeeley going up and down like a rubber ball, Patterson still didn't look like a 10-1 favorite. Crude as he was the crew cut blond from Arlington, Mass., gave the slick champion plenty of trouble.

After being knocked down twice in the third round, McNeeley, blood trickling from a wound under his right eye, stormed after Patterson like a wild man. He belted the surprised champion with a right to the jaw that hurt and brought roars from the crowd.

But Patterson took over and dropped McNeeley twice more officially and once more with a punch but the last was ruled a slip.

The challenger, who had been unbeaten in 23 previous fights in a 3-1-3 year career, brought the fans to their feet in the fatal fourth when he clouted Patterson with a right. The champ's knees appeared to buckle and his head touched the canvas, helping him to leap up quickly. That was when Walcott called it a slip.

Then Patterson, with his cornermen calling for him to press the attack, tore in and felled his bleeding victim for two eight counts with barrages and then finally with a left-hand combination to the jaw for the full count of ten.

It was Patterson's ninth title fight, all of them ending in knockouts. He lost one to Ingemar Johansson

Rod, Gun Club Trap Shoot Ends In a Tie

The Rod and Gun Club trap shoot held Sunday on the club grounds ended in a first place tie between Dick Cole of Sedalia and Joey Nichols of Kansas City.

Vernon Bingham, Sedalia, was the second place winner while H. Henderson of Norborne and Roy Hall of Sweet Springs knotted for third place position.

In the miss and out event, Dick Cole was the winner.

More than 100 persons were at the club grounds to attend both the trap shoot and the turkey shoot.

Crimson Tide Named Press Grid Champs

NEW YORK (AP) — Alabama was voted the 1961 Associated Press national football champion today, a goal set for the Crimson Tide by master rebuilder Paul (Bear) Bryant.

In the final poll of board members, defense-minded Alabama drew 452 of a possible 480 points to edge Big Ten champion Ohio State which collected 436.

Coach Bryant's eleven concluded a perfect season by crushing Auburn 34-0 Saturday, their fifth straight shutout, and will face ninth-ranked Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl. Bama is riding a 17-game winning streak.

Texas vaulted over Louisiana State into third spot, 348 points to 335. Mississippi, Minnesota, Colorado, Michigan State, Arkansas and Utah State complete the top 10 selected on the basis of 10 points for a first-place vote, nine for second and so forth.

Bryant, the "other end" from Don Hutson in 1934, returned to his alma mater four years ago. As he had done previously at Maryland, Kentucky and Texas A&M, Bryant inherited a loser but quickly converted it into a winner.

Though this is the first national crown for Alabama in the 26 years of the AP poll, it is the third for a Southeastern Conference team in the past five seasons.

The Tide's seventh unbeaten, untied campaign—first since the 1945 unit led by Harry Gilmer—is built on a grudging defense as was that of Auburn (1957) and LSU (1958). Alabama led the nation in defense against scoring, allowing only 22 points, as well as in total defense and rushing defense yardage. Bryant's boys surrendered two touchdowns on passes, one on the ground, a field goal and a conversion kick.

Bryant, a superb recruiter and harsh taskmaster, did not relent until the ninth game of the 10-game schedule. When his charges whipped Georgia Tech 10-0, Bear said: "They convinced me they are a great team."

Versatile quarterback Pat Trammell and fullback Mike Prachia are the key figures in a battering attack with tackle Billy Neighbors and center Lee Roy Jordan leading the charge.

But the defense holds the secret. Bama foes have managed only 132.5 yards per game this season, a mere 55.0 rushing.

The final poll results with first-place votes in parentheses:

1. Alabama (26) 452
2. Ohio State (20) 436
3. Texas 348
4. Louisiana State (1) 335
5. Mississippi (1) 335
6. Minnesota 225
7. Colorado 171
8. Michigan State 128
9. Arkansas 105
10. Utah State 33

starts, put at least a kink in the sophomore-dominated Wildcats' hopes of gaining a national rating. The victory was a must for the Trojans.

They achieved it by a solid defense and the scoring heroics of John Rudometkin, who had 29 points and gave Southern Cal the go-ahead basket at 2:19, establishing a 78-77 lead.

Kentucky, which overcame a nine-point deficit early in the last half, held a 77-74 lead with 5:08 to go—then went stone cold and failed to score again.

Their match topped a heavy Monday slate which also included Notre Dame's 39-58 overtime decision over Northwestern, South Carolina's 79-66 victory over Tennessee and Texas Tech's narrow 84-82 win over Colorado.

Among the top games tonight are the visit of Miami of Ohio to

Stover Takes Smithton In A Slow Game

Stover's ambitious and stubborn Bulldogs whipped the Smithton Tigers, 42-34, in a game of slow action and low scores Monday night at Stover. The Dogs, facing Smithton in their only open date of the week, meet Climax Springs there tonight in a non-conference battle.

Stover, at 3:3 for the season and 1-0 in the Tri-County Conference, held a slim four-point edge over the Tigers at half time, but consistently hit the bucket two jumps ahead of the Tigers for the win. At the end of 3 quarters, Stover 31-24, and after that it was relatively safe going.

LeRoy Viebrock's two returning lettermen, Darrell Schackelford and Ronnie Nolting, were held to low scores. Schackelford, a 5-foot-9 senior averaging at 24 points per game before Monday's contest, was held to 18 markers. Barry DeLong, also back from last year and averaging between 11 and 12 points per game, was held to nine. Nolting, also a senior, could hit for only three.

Only one Tigerman managed to get above the ten-point mark against Stover's defenders. Paul Bass led the Smithton attack with 11 points, followed by B. DeMoss with seven.

In a "B" game contest, Stover trounced Smithton 31-9 on a combined 10-point attack by Jimmie Bower and Jimmie Cooper. Jerry Harms was high for Smithton with five.

Score by quarters:
Stover 10 10 11 11—42
Smithton 9 2 8 10—34
Individual scoring: Stover — Bonnie Nolting 3; Larry Viebrock 2; Kent Uptegrove 2; Jerry Downing 6; Jimmie Goetz 2; Darrell Schackelford 18; Barry DeLong 9; Smithton — Bob DeMoss 7; John Hammons 6; John Floyd 5; Garry Cook 5; Paul Bass 11.

The Smith-Cotton freshman team trounced the Clinton Jets Monday night, 54-25, at Smith-Cotton. Smith Cotton's 8th graders took a tight offensive battle from the Jets, 25-23.

The Freshman Tigers began a full court press at the beginning of the game and used the fast break very effectively to gain a handsome half-time lead, 31-7.

The second half was much like the first. The Tigers, playing a fast game, continued to pull away from the Jets. In the closing minutes of the game the Jets put on a final rally but were unable to even dent the Tigers lead.

High scorers for the Tigers were Crawford with 13, Jim Johnson with 12, and Barry Wallace with 11.

In the first half of the eighth 8th grade game the Tigers, used a zone, slowed the game but were still able to build a safe lead. At the end of the half the Tigers led, 17-8.

Clinton put on a full court press at the beginning of the half and began to whittle at the Tiger lead. In the closing minutes of the game the Jets tied the Tigers, the Tigers pulled ahead with seconds left on the clock and held the Jets.

Ed Sullivan Show Ignores Passing Time

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — TV shows come and, inevitably, go. But Ed Sullivan's Sunday night hour—almost as old as television but as new as the latest teen-age singing smash—goes on, impervious to time.

The format of the CBS perennial, of course, is vaudeville. Although nowadays Sullivan's producer is going in for backdrops and elaborate production numbers, the attraction is still the prospect of fresh talent and big names each week.

Sunday night's outing was typical: a young singing discovery, Mike Clifford, plus singer Connie Francis. Then Sid Caesar in a couple of comedy sketches—one in fractured German was pure Caesar at his best—and Joan Sutherland, the new metropolitan opera sensation. If none of these was your dish, Ed pulled out Maurice Chevalier to say Merry Christmas. Something for everybody.

CBS' "Twentieth Century" this season has been preoccupied with war, past hot ones and the current cold one. Sunday night's half-hour was a reminiscence by a Japanese sent to Pearl Harbor 20 years ago as a spy.

The man, now a gas station owner, was filmed as he revisited his wartime haunts in Hawaii. The voice of the translator unemotionally read his story.

To a reader of Eric Ambler and John Buchan, he certainly made the glamorous business of espionage sound like dull drudgery—reading up on Navy craft and studying "Jane's Fighting Ships" for background, hanging around public beaches and working in a Navy officers club in the hope he might overhear some secrets. He didn't.

NBC's mail department reports the show drawing the largest quantity of mail—and all approving—is "Sing Along With Mitch."

Department head, Katherine Cole said, incidentally, that "Car 54, Where Are You?" drew eight letters immediately after the first program complaining that the show made fun of the finest, but none of that nature since. So far, not one letter has been received from a doctor kicking about the portrayal of physicians and medical scenes in "Dr. Kildare." Obviously, having a physician on the set for consultation is paying off nicely.

Jack ("Dragnet") Webb, after all these seasons outside TV, is getting back into production—an anthology series based on stories from an adventure magazine for next season.

Bob Hope's 10th annual Christmas trip to entertain servicemen in remote outposts will take him and his troupe to Greenland, Labrador, Newfoundland and Baffin Island this year. The Arctic shows, as usual, will be filmed for later broadcast, although this season Hope's variety programs are few and far between.

Ducktail Style Haircut Hurts Grade Average

PERRY, Ga. (AP)—That much-discussed ducktail haircut caused young Stanley Sorrells to fail in every subject at Perry High School.

The senior had been doing all right scholastically until the question of hair styles arose. His mother, Mrs. Walter C. Sorrells, said Monday: "His teachers told him that he passed all right—but they said they had to give him Fs because he was suspended from school for 10 days."

Stanley was suspended for refusing to obey a school order not to wear a ducktail.

His father went to bat for what he said was his son's "basic American right to comb his hair as he sees fit," and brought suit against four school officials. It was dismissed in Superior Court on a technicality.

The elder Sorrells now has pending before the State Board of Education an appeal seeking to bar the Houston County School Board from making rules on hair-combing.

Book Gesture Of Full Life In California

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—As a last gesture of a full life, Leo Carrillo tossed a bouquet to his longtime love, California.

The result is on the bookstands now — "The California I Love" Prentice-Hall ($7.50). While it tells little of the man Carrillo, it is a splendid view of a California that is fast disappearing among the tracts and freeways.

"The adobe is my birthstone," he writes, telling of his beginnings near the birthplace of Los Angeles itself—the Old Plaza. He carefully neglects reporting the year he was born. He was an actor who wanted to play the role of the dashing caballero even when he was pushing 80.

Carrillo had good reason for his pride in California. His great-grandfather had made the trek from Mexico with Father Serra and Capt. Gaspar de Portola in 1769. The Carrillos couldn't have gotten here sooner unless they were Indians.

The first half of "The California I Love" is a fascinating remembrance of the sleepy pueblo of Los Angeles. The Angelinos had their fiestas and horse races to brighten the pleasant monotony of the weather.

The book throws some light on the rather cloudy origin of the name Hollywood. Carrillo wrote that a real estate promoter named Wilcox was viewing some property he had marked for subdivision. He asked a Mexican boy the name of some hillside plants that were bright with red berries.

"In Spanish it is toyon, but in English it is holly—wood," said the boy, copying the Spanish custom of following a plant name with "madera," meaning wood.

Carrillo (he pronounced it cay-reel-you) treats his acting career rather briefly in the book. His

6 Youths Face Sentences For Harassing Jews

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Six youths who pleaded guilty Monday to felony conspiracy in the 15-month harassment of a San Francisco Jewish couple, will return to Superior Court Jan. 9 for probation report and sentence. Each could get up to three years imprisonment.

Herbert Wherry, 20, John D. Rice, 19, Robert R. Ennes, 18, Alfred P. Mendello Jr., 18, Brent J. Cohn, 21, and Gordon B. Deane 19, changed their pleas from innocent when they appeared for trial.

Gerald J. Kilroy 19, and Richard Henderson, 19, are to be tried.

Two youths pleaded guilty earlier and await sentencing Dec. 18. Two others have been placed on probation by Juvenile Court.

All were accused of participating in threatening phone calls, vandalism and general persecution of Mr. and Mrs. William Bowman. They said they did it for "kicks."

introduction to show business seems casual, being an outgrowth of the dialect stories he heard in his youth.

He became a vaudeville headliner with his Chinese, Mexican, Italian and Japanese stories. In those days a comedian could use dialect in a warm-hearted way without being accused of ridiculing a minority.

Carrillo was best known to this generation as Pancho of "Cisco Kid" but he had little love for the TV series.

Leo Carrillo left his testament and his mark. The Tournament of Roses parade on New Year's Day won't seem the same without him.

4 Elections Slated For House Seats

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four special elections for the House of Representatives are coming up to fill seats formerly held by Democrats. Three of the contests will be held next month in the South.

Democratic campaign spokesmen say they believe all four districts will remain Democratic, but they have their fingers crossed. They say they no longer are taking the South for granted. A Michigan election also could prove tough.

Republican leaders appear none too optimistic, but say they are quite hopeful of breaking the long Republican drought in Louisiana where two conservatives are trying for the seat left vacant by the death of Rep. Overton Brooks. This election is Dec. 19.

The other elections are Dec. 16 and 23 to fill vacancies in Texas caused by the resignation of Reps. Frank Ikard and the death of Speaker Sam Rayburn, and Feb. 13 in Michigan for the seat of the late Rep. Louis C. Rabaut.

In Louisiana's 4th District, the candidates are Democrat Joe Waggoner, oil products wholesaler, and Republican Charlton H. Lyons Sr., Shreveport oil dealer. They were named in a primary. I. Lee Potter, the Republican National Committee's Southern spokesman, said he is quite hopeful about GOP chances in Louisiana, despite the fact that Democrats have 97 per cent of registrations. Potter said both Waggoner and Lyons are ultra-conservative and Lyons is conducting an aggressive campaign.

Although Republican Richard M. Nixon carried the Louisiana 4th in 1960, the vote was split three ways, with an uncommitted slate of electors polling about 35 per cent and President Kennedy getting 27 against Nixon's 38. Brooks won the district last year 3 to 1.

Wigmaker Loses $6,000 Stock In a Burglary

WASHINGTON (AP) — A hair-rising sight greeted Marcel Cadeaux, 56, when he visited his second-story shop on fashionable Connecticut Avenue Sunday.

His stock in trade, some $6,000 in hand-made wigs, had been stolen.

The obvious question, of course, is why would anyone want an unfinished wig or toupee specially made for someone else.

"Crooks," explained the excitable Frenchman, sweeping off his own brown toupee and revealing a pate as devoid of growth as that of any of his customers.

He said a crime victim might declare at a police line up of suspects: "This guy has hair, the man who robbed me was bald." Or vice versa.

White Paper Will Blast Viet Nam Reds
WASHINGTON (AP) — W. Averell Harriman says the United States will issue within a few days a white paper that "will give irrefutable evidence of the actions of North Viet Nam against South Viet Nam."
Returning home Sunday to take over as the new assistant secretary of state for the Far East, Harriman charged the North Viet Nam government with supporting subversion and guerrilla activity in violation of the 1954 Geneva agreement.

Yuletide Spirit Inspires Good Business Predictions

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The Christmas spirit must be inspiring both the business statisticians and the business soothsayers. The news leans heavily today to the jolly side. The predictions, as you might guess, are even cheerier.

Most official figures pouring out of government agencies and industry's haunts plot an upward trend in business activity. Many sight records in the making for December—such as in retail sales volume. Most of the rest chart the emergency from the early fall lull and resumption of the advance in industrial output and orders.

The soothsayers go farther. One group of business economists reporting over the weekend to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce sees 1962 setting records in production, income and profits.

Backing them up are such items as these:

Steel orders finally have begun to mount — perhaps to build up stocks in the first half of 1962 as a hedge against a possible steel strike in the summer. Mills are beginning to plan increased output. This has been holding close to 70 per cent of capacity for some time, but some say it could soon rise to 80 per cent.

Auto retail sales have perked up. And some think output this month could top last December by 20 per cent or more.

One up here is that consumer debt has begun to rise, with most of the increase in instalment credit in auto paper. The latest reported gain is the biggest in almost a year.

Spending on construction, both current and planned, has begun to rise. The Department of Commerce is particularly impressed by the outlook for home building. It estimates 1.3 million private housing units will have been started this year by New Year's Eve.

And it thinks that next year another 1.4 million will be going up. Public housing is put at 50,000 units this year and 55,000 next.

Business spending for new plant and equipment also is expected to rise next year. Higher costs will account for some of the increase. But if output and profits advance as some hope, the physical volume of construction will be up, too.

At the consumer level, economists note with joy that sales volume is on the increase. The latest weekly figure on department store sales show them 6 per cent above the like week of 1960.

Predictions of total Christmas sales this year run 4 to 6 per cent ahead of last year. Shoppers are reported buying carefully but not pinching pennies when they find what they want.

Both merchants and manufacturers are taking comfort from the state of the money market.

The money managers are seeing to it that the banks have plenty of reserves for financing Christmas trade and for making loans when and if industrialists want them for expanding activity.

And the economists have their own source of comfort. Despite all the optimism that has bubbled up of late, there's no sign yet of a runaway boom psychology that could be dangerous. Purchasing agents report ordering is still being held within realistic bounds. Expansion plans are being tailored close to reasonable expectations of industrial demand.

42-inch Blonde Locks Snipped Off By Student

DETROIT (AP)—Cecelia Barna, 18, a freshman at Marygrove College, displayed little emotion when a barber snipped off her 42-inch blonde tresses.

"Too much trouble to wash and manage while keeping up with my studies," Cecelia said. "But now it seems like there's nothing on my head. I think I'll let my hair grow a little."

Anton Riechl, a Detroit wig-maker, supervised the hair trimming. Riechl paid Cecelia $10 for the hair and paid for the haircut.

Rochester May Have to Shop Without Buses

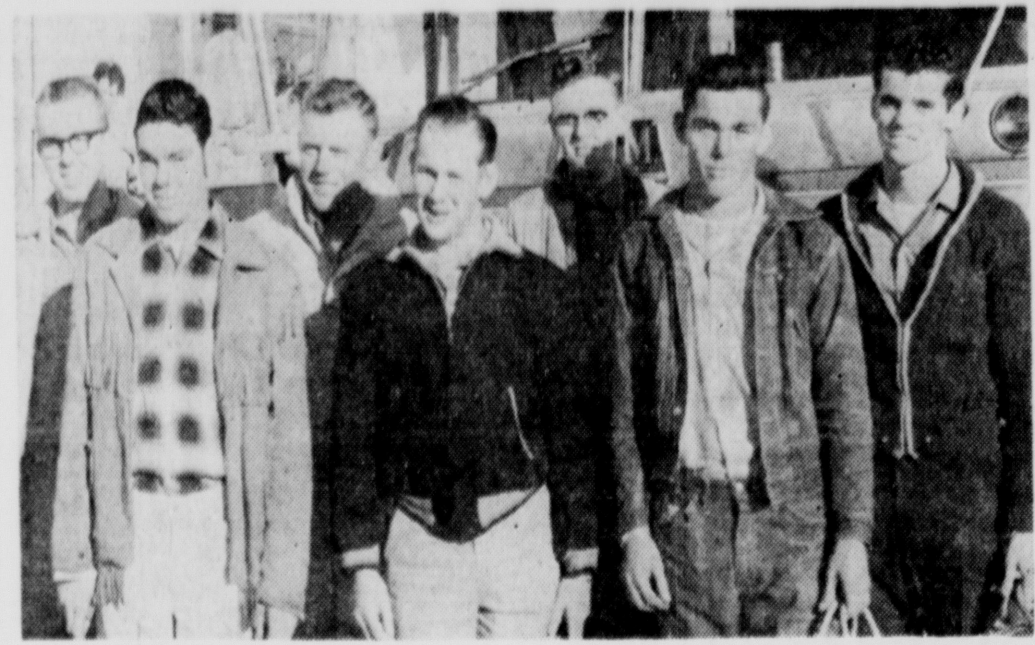

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — This city's 318,611 prepared today to make the best of a Christmas shopping season without public transportation. They already have been without bus service for 35 days.

Striking drivers and mechanics of the Rochester Transit Co., in a 471-5 vote Monday, rejected what the company said was its final contract offer. It was reported that the drivers and mechanics were offered a 15-cent wage increase over two years and added fringe benefits.

The union, Local 282 of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway, and Motor Coach Employees, had asked a 19-cent raise and broader fringe benefits.

Drivers got $2.31 an hour and mechanics $2.09-$2.46 under the old contract.

"The doctor says the sprain isn't too bad, but that I should rest it for a few weeks. This means I won't be able to pay you and Madge my annual holiday visit, as I have done every year since you married my daughter 21 years ago. I hate to break this fine old family tradition, but—"

"This is just a memo to let you know, Jim, that after the first of the year you'll have the title of vice president and $5,000 more per annum. The case of bourbon that comes with this note is to help you celebrate your—"

"As it has been three years since your wife used her charge account at our store, we are discontinuing it because of our policy that it doesn't pay us to keep accounts which remain inactive for longer than—"

"Just as you suspected, a physical examination has disclosed that patrolman Kelly is both nearsighted and color-blind. Therefore the department is tearing up the 15 parking tickets and the ticket he gave you for running through a red light, and we apologize for any inconvenience we may have—"

"And while it has been nice living with you all the last six months, I thought while I was out here in Arizona I'd look around for something steady, and have landed a swell job in real estate and met a swell doll, and guess I'll settle down out here. Hope you and sis won't mind too much. Your brother-in-law, Joe."

"We in the Internal Revenue Service pride ourselves on our accuracy, Mr. Wilson, but in your case we simply got the wrong Wilson. We are returning your check for $362 and enclosing our own check for $187, representing a refund on the amount you actually overpaid last year. If we had more honest taxpayers like you—"

"Of course, I could sell you a new furnace if you really want to go to all that expense. But the old one is working fine, as far as I can see. However, you did have a little trouble with your thermostat, which I adjusted. The bill is $7.75."

"My little elves, while follling around in their workshop this summer, stumbled on a way to make money. Not play money. Real money. So instead of just bringing you another necktie this year, I decided I'd surprise you by giving you something you could really use. Enclosed are ten genuine $100 bills. Have a merry Christmas! Sincerely yours, Santa Claus."

Wants Name at Top

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP)—Chief Deputy Sheriff Charles E. Larson, candidate for Lake County sheriff, has lined up the supporters needed to put his name at the top of the ballot on election day. Larson's supporters are taking turns at the door of County Clerk Garfield R. Leaf to present petitions for his candidacy on the opening day of filing, Jan. 15, 1962.

In Lake County the candidate who gets his petitions in first gets the top ballot position.

Artificial Hog Breeding Leans On Two Factors

How useful and effective artificial insemination will be in improving swine depends upon two main factors, according to John Lasley, animal breeding scientist at the University of Missouri.

The two factors are: (1) How superior the boars are that are used for artificial insemination, and (2) How much use is made of semen from these superior boars.

"Greatest improvement from use of AI would probably come in the overall quality of market hogs," Lasley says. "The fact that more commercial producers would have access to semen from outstanding sires could have an important impact on swine improvement in general."

Lasley noted that purebred swine* producers already are striving to use superior boars from their best strains and from progeny-tested sires.

Lasley said artificial insemination in swine is now being used to some extent under field conditions. But before it becomes as widely accepted as in dairy cattle breeding, improvements must be made in prolonging the life of stored sperm, and in techniques of insemination and detection of estrus in sows and gilts.

Development of a practical method of controlling or synchronizing estrus in gilts and sows would greatly add to the usefulness of this breeding method.

German Airliner Crashes, Killing Three Crewmen

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—A four-jet Boeing 720B of the German Lufthansa airline crashed near the city of Mainz on a training flight today. An airline spokesman said all three men aboard were killed.

The spokesman said there were no passengers on the plane when it crashed while attempting an emergency landing near the village of Ebersheim, west of Mainz.

The three victims included two flight captains and a flight engineer, all Germans.

The crash occurred just after noon. The cause was not immediately determined.

The plane crashed into an open field, police said. It was one of several Boeing 720s delivered to Lufthansa earlier this year. The German airline flies them on its routes to North and South America as well as to the Middle East.

AIRMAN Basic Thomas A. Summers, son of Mrs. M. K. Summers, Ottumville, is being assigned to the United States Air Force technical training course for electricians at Sheppard AFB, Tex.
